viaggio italian villa vacation VILLA CONTRONI

The COSELLI COLLECTION Estate is located outside the northern Tuscan town of Lucca and is nestled in the valley at the foot of the Monti Pisani mountains which separate Lucca and Pisa. The estate overlooks the quaint village of Vorno and is surrounded by an olive grove and beautiful country gardens.

This family owned estate has some of the finest historic villas available in Tuscany and the three which we have reserved compliment each other providing the finest in Tuscan living.

VILLA CONTRONI, was built as the summer residence of the Controni family - noble merchants who, in 1680, took over what is now Palazzo Pfanner in the centre of Lucca. In 1692 Carlo Controni invited Prince Frederick of Denmark and Norway as a guest whilst he was visiting Lucca during his Grand Tour of Italy.

For many years the fertile estate which provided housing for workers, a chapel, stables and an olive oil press, was used for the cultivation of rare flowers.

VILLA CONTRONI is one of the finest historic villas in Tuscany and was beautifully restored in 2006 by the current owners, the Fanucchi family.

The ground floor features separate reading and television lounges, a billiard room and the banquet dining room along with a Tuscan kitchen. The first level features six deluxe villa bedrooms which all connect onto a central lounge. The second level accommodates our four villa loft rooms and the villa loft suite.

On entering the private garden, you will firstly find the alfresco dining area and a short walk takes you to the private pool and fully equipped gymnasium.

To stay at VILLA CONTRONI is to truly experience Italy – the elegant ambience, the enchanting settings, the history, and above all the opportunity to experience a viaggio vacation.
